

Co-Parenting After Separation: Keeping Our Kids Healthy

Thursday, December 2, 2021
12-1:30pm

Divorce and separation can be difficult on both the parents and the children. Most will agree that there can be tension, anger and a host of other feelings that sometimes “take over” as we navigate the split and parenting. This live session looks into important considerations when co-parenting: things to do and NOT do.

Featuring guest speakers on divorce, guardianship, child abuse/neglect and more...

Gina Hernandez MA, LPC

Danielle Forshee Psy.D, LCSW

Alycia M. Guichard of Verizon, Morton Bast & Brian Jones of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton, and Richard Gruenberger & Aditi Eleswarapu of DLA Piper

This free event will be facilitated by Prevent Child Abuse-NJ’s Executive Director Gina Hernandez, MA, LPC focused on family law and how to keep our children healthy during the separation process with Danielle Forshee, Psy.D, LCSW followed by a Q & A with attorneys and Dr. Forshee.

CLEARY GOTTLIB

verizon^v

Click HERE to register today!

Questions? Contact Kelly Noah at 732.735.6482 or knoah@preventchildabuseNJ.org

This event is solely educational. The prevention from the therapist and attorneys are for informational purposes and not intended to provide counseling or legal advice particular to anyone’s circumstances.