About the Director

Keith Martinez received his undergraduate degree from Rutgers University and his Masters in Social Work from Fordham University. He has experience in the fields of mental health and substance abuse in virtually every level of care – outpatient, intensive outpatient, partial care, outpatient detoxification, and short and long-term residential settings. He has worked in both direct care and administrative capacities, and is well respected by others in the treatment community. Keith is licensed in New Jersey as a Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) and Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LCADC). He has also earned the Internationally Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (ICADC) credential.
